Career TEAM DC Attends The 5th Annual Southwest Community Unity Day

Washington, DC August 2011:

Career TEAM DC attended the 5th Annual Southwest Community Unity Day at King Greenleaf Recreation Center on Saturday, August 6th. This community and family focused event is a unique opportunity for organizations to display their programs, services, and activities to the thousands of SW Residents and others, who participate in this celebration.

Career TEAM was selected as one of the organizations to exhibit at this exciting event. All exhibitors focused on health, education, economic empowerment, teen issues, and family values.

Career TEAM DC is located in the heart of the South West Community and is committed to work together to strengthen the community through support and guidance. Career TEAM employees helped celebrate the strengths and values of the SW Community by participating in this event.

Also, this event acted as a rallying point for government agencies, private and public sector institutions, corporations, community-based organizations and families of all ethnicities to work together on solutions to issues affecting the SW community and its families.
