Career TEAM Philadelphia Sponsors Urban League Gala

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania June 2011:

Career TEAM Philadelphia recently partnered with the Urban League of Philadelphia. Career TEAM was selected as an Opportunity Sponsor for their Empowerment Week Gala. From May 31st through June 4th the Urban League of Philadelphia held events to provide access to economic empowerment for jobseekers, homeowners and entrepreneurs; a forum for CEOs throughout the region and a culminating gala that brings together the area's business, legislative and civic leaders to celebrate the work of local businesses and present scholarships to college-bound students.

By supporting the 2011 Empowerment Week, Career TEAM helped play a key role in ensuring that the quality programs and services the Urban League is known for such as: providing men, women and families continuous support and that the doors of opportunity remain open.

Career TEAM had the opportunity to participate in Empowerment Week programming that gave Career TEAM employees direct exposure to the Philadelphia community. The Urban League is uniquely positioned to serve as a connector between a circle of individuals, community-based groups, civic organizations, corporations, emerging businesses, think tanks and public policy makers seeking to improve the well being of the region's African Americans.
